SPENCER COOPER, P. M. Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.: WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1886.

For Judge Jeff. J. B. White, J. B. BAMPFORD WHITE, OF ESTILL COUNTY.

Mr. W. P. Taulbee, Of Madison county, a candidate for Congress in the Fourth Kentucky District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

"Dead is the staff of life," but it is powerful comforting about the fact of your to lean on a new of honest men.

A contemporary says of some students, "We expect to hear their voices in the pulpit, on the stump and at the bar."

Incidentally you may, and "Thank Miss" will be the purport of the remarks of the two latter classes of men.

After one of the most disastrous wrecks that ever occurred in a Democratic Convention in this State, Joseph Barbour, of Henry county, received the nomination for Superior Court Judge in the Second district, at 8 o'clock A. M. last Friday.

Constantly it is a jewel about the size of a dish pan, and the Sentinel-Democrat has it—sailed up in a cockpit. That paper denies that Col. Day is the right nominee for Commonwealth's Attorney, but supports Judge Ewing for the Commonwealth's Judgeship.

Sen. W. P. Taulbee is mentioned in this issue of our paper as a candidate for re-election to Congress from this district. Those who have watched his course in Congress are proud of the record he has made during his first term, and his constituents will demand that he be returned for another term.

Courier-Journal, Carlo B. Lytle, of Cla y county, is sitting as Special Judge of the Circuit Court at Whitesburg, Letcher county, and in a murder case, after hearing testimony and the argument of counsel, "quietly but promptly ordered bail" to the effect of ordering them to jail instead. This is such an innovation on the jurisprudence of that district, that, all district, that it would be a good thing to permanently seat Mr. Lytle on the bench.

THE HAZEL GREEN ENTERTAINMENT.

A Good Time and a Good Crowd.

(Licking Valley Sorecher.)

Embowered in beauty, and closely nestled at the base of the mountain, the village of the Licking and Red rivers situated the town of Hazel Green, Wolfe county, Ky., the seat of an acre which occupies a front rank among the institutions of learning in Eastern Kentucky. For public intelligence, culture and enterprise, its population will compare favorably with any town in Kentucky, while their generous hospitality and courtesy to strangers has won for them a reputation as the "City of the Mountains." Mounted on a degenarate descendant of Indiana's historic horse, bleated with a fine tenor voice and a keen attention to it, and accompanied by "Bummer Kemp" and our young friend John B. Keady, we left Friday morning for this place to witness the commencement exercises of the academic session just closed, and in three hours found ourselves pleasantly seated in the comfortable parlor of the "Day House," a change of that place of residence. Here, Isaac Murphy, who just knows how to entertain an "old hand" or any one else. Here we had the pleasure of meeting Spencer Cooper, editor of the Herald, and his amiable wife, and their children, who could contribute to the pleasure of the visitor from our little city. We were rather unfortunate in reaching there for the first night's entertainment, but were amply repaid by the Friday night's program. Two weeks can be said of Prof. Hays and his most excellent wife, for the advancement of the educational interest, as was shown by the examination of the pupils on Friday in their respective studies. There was not a drop in the examination and every thing went as smoothly as clock work. The entertainment on Friday night was a grand success, and right here we wish to give honor to whom honor is due "Mr. Hays, a most pleasant and intelligent man, and a true motive power of the entertainment, and while confined to her room, the selected pupils, and their friends, with an energy that deserves the praise of that community. We would like to speak in detail of all we saw and heard, but space forbids, and as every thing would tend to hang in an even balance, will refrain from particularizing. The essays read by the young ladies were written with care, and read clearly and distinctly, and with an easy grace. The speeches by the young men were grand, and we expect in the "sweetest of willies" to hear their voices in the pulpit, at the bar and on the stump.

VIRGINIA.

Newsweek County News for the Herald.

ONAS BATES, Va., June 9.—Henry, Eddie and James Bates, aged respectively fourteen, twelve and ten, were instantly drowned in a pond in "Smith's Pasture," Russell county, on the evening of the 6th inst. The boys, (who were brothers) were going from school, and a recent rain had raised the water, and they were taking care, which they well knew. They went in the pond swimming, and approaching the creek too near, they were sucked under the water to the depth of ten twenty feet. The oldest Henry, went under first and accidentally threw away the mouth of the hole—and of course stopped the other two from going down. A young man who was standing on the bank tried to rescue them, but failed. The youngest, clinging to his neck till he tore him loose to save his own life. After the water subsided the lifeline bodies were recovered, but one being covered some two or three feet in the mud, and some distance in the mouth of the pond.

Miss Bertin Cecil spent last Saturday night at Mr. R. S. Steele's, where she "took a lesson" Miss Steele and her son, Mr. Steele, the collision was an agreeable one.

Miss Sallie Dickey and her brother Dick, were the guests of Miss Julia Cecil, last Thursday. Miss Lou Cecil and her father, of Kentucky, were also present.

Mr. L. N. Nixon, of Belland, made a flying visit here last Sunday, accompanied by two of his sons, and a daughter.

nied by two of Belland's gallant knights, G. L. Simon and a Mr. Ferguson.

Mr. R. M. Cecil and daughter Lou, of your State, have been visiting friends and relatives of this place. They started for home Monday morning last.

Maliam Bumor says, we are to have a "Hazel Green Pic" (Gillepie) wedding party, on the 28th inst. The party is to be at the home of Mr. Bumor, at Hazel Green, on the 28th inst. It is to be a grand affair, and will be well attended.

Miss Jennie Green and Ella Cecil have been visiting Miss Florence Brown, in Richmond, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. John Young, of Sinking Water, is visiting his daughter of this place now. Mrs. E. B. Scott is also here.

R. F. Cecil is having a porch built to his dwelling, which will be useful as well as ornamental.

Mr. T. M. Scott is very near death's door, not expected to live. His wife is also very near.

Miss Mollie B. Wingo, of Staebury, is visiting friends and relatives of this place now.

Born.—To the wife of Mr. Peter James, a fine girl. Pete is happy.

Miss Lillie Reppas was right sick yesterday, but is out again. HAZEL GREEN.

THE HERALD OF HAZEL GREEN.

By ALICE AMY.

When loneliness doth hover round And cause my heart to roam I look and wait with anxious eyes For some kind word from home.

A word from loved and absent ones, Whom memory holds most dear, And these I find couched within THE HERALD'S words of cheer.

The progress of our childhood's hours, The thrilling look of hopefulness That early dawned in life, Are propagated and sustained By this, our Advocate, who pleads With such efficiency.
